

PRIVACY POLICY

A user can access our website and utilise a number of our services without providing any information at all. Users who avail of Reprocentre's online services and opt in services provide basic contact and demographic information which is not supplied to any third party.

If users wish to contact Reprocentre, they must enter personal information.

The information collected when a user contacts Reprocentre regarding a service can include an e-mail address and name.

Cookies

Cookies are not used on this website.

We use your IP address; log user agents and referring address to help diagnose problems with our server, to administer our Website and to identify unique users. Your IP address is also used to gather broad demographic information. We do not provide our log file data to any third party.

Contacting the Website

If you have any questions about this privacy statement, or the security practices of this site, you can contact us.

Security

This site has security measures in place to protect the loss, misuse, and alteration of the information under our control. Unfortunately, no data transmission over the Internet can be guaranteed to be 100% secure. As a result, while we strive to protect your personal information, Reprocentre cannot ensure or warrant the security of any information you transmit to us or from our online products or services, and you do so at your own risk. Once we receive your transmission, we make our best effort to ensure its security on our systems.

External Links

This site contains links to other sites. Reprocentre is not responsible for the privacy practices or the content of such Websites.
